

four feet in depth, half filled with water, in which is raked out the hot ashes and live coals from the locomotives and which, at the time

tham Exhausted After the Festivities.

LEGATES FROM THE POPE COME.

tain's Greeting to the World's Fair Commission.

THE POINT BREEZE CASE.

NEW YORK TIED OUT.

hausted After Three Days of Festivities.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—The Manhattan railway Monday carried 945,000 passengers, on Tuesday 901,325 and on Wednesday 1,075,537. This makes the record.

the night paganant, when it did come along more than three hours late, was a disappointment, and, dragging its small-like course along, it left hundreds of thousands of people on the sidewalks and in the crowds until 2 o'clock this morning, or even later.

oday the town is exhausted as a result; and, along the line of the parade at least, as the parade has been.

Chandler, who was in the lead, plunged in and Dr. Milner fell on top of him. They were soon rescued and taken to the city hospital in the ambulance.

Chandler was baked about the shoulders, breast and body, and Dr. Milner was badly scalded about the face and legs.

BALKED BY A BOLD SHERIFF.

Hill Simms Was Saved From The Fury of a Missouri Mob.

SEDAIA, Mo., Oct. 13.—It was only because of the coolness and determination of Sheriff Smith that Hill Simms (not Simmons), who assaulted Miss Pringle yesterday, does not adorn a telegraph pole at the end of a rope this morning. When the mob of 200 arrived at jail about 10 o'clock this morning they demanded surrender of Simms, but Sheriff Smith and a handful of men stepped into the front yard of the jail and the sheriff, with drawn weapons, declined to comply with the request. The drawn weapons in the hands of the sheriff and deputies had a strong effect. At 1:15 Frank Maj., E. W. Weinseburg, who had been attracted to the scene by the noise of the crowds, moved that they "meeting adjourn," and when the motion was put it was carried by a large majority, after which the mob slowly began to disperse.

"THE ORIGINAL THIRTEEN."

They Will Be Represented at Chicago by Descendants of Revolution Fathers.

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—The thirteen original states will be represented in the parade next Thursday by thirteen "revolution ladies, descendants of the original thirteen."

The visiting militiamen are starting for home, as the militia are recovering from their labors yesterday, and the distinguished citizens are to attend the big banquet tonight, at which the full fruition of the great education, are resting their wife may be rep and their appetites good.

The big banquet will take place in Lenox room at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, where it will preside and Chaniney M. Dewey act as toastmaster.

The following are as follows:

The United States Vice President Morton. The City of New York," John H. F. Arnold; America and Its Discoverer." Chas. G. A. Burke, Jr., The City of New York; Governor; "American Patriotism," Gen. Horace Tracy; "The New York Legislature," Wm. Bourke Cockran.

PAPAL DELEGATES COMING.

New York, Oct. 13.—Archbishop Satolli and Fr. Dennis J. O'Connell, the papal delegates arrived here yesterday on the Majestic from New York at 9 o'clock this morning. They were met by a social car accompanied by a committee sent here by Cardinal Gibbons. The delegates will visit Washington and have interview with Secretary of State Foster regarding their mission to this country. They are expected to find the general condition of the Catholic Church in the United States.

FROM SPAIN TO CHICAGO.

commissioners as follows: Miss Cornelia Jackson, Atlanta, Ga.; Miss Mary Canby, Wilmington, Del.; Mrs. C. D. Gillespie, Philadelphia, Pa.; Mrs. Ella C. Chase, Providence, R. I.; Miss L. J. Smith, Baltimore, Md.; Miss Mildred Murphy, McLeisters, Raleigh, N. C.; Mrs. Ella Trum, Boston, Mass.; Mrs. E. B. Hastings, N. Y.; Emily G. D. Stevens, East Orange, N. J.; Miss Elizabeth Pinkney Pufferfield, Virginia; Mrs. William Brewster, Portsmouth, N. H. South Carolina and the United States responded. Mrs. Cleveland was nominated to represent New York.

DETECTIVE MCNEELY'S STORY.

He Was "Merely Trying to Fool the Globe Reporter."

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 12.—Private Detective McNeely, the author of the romance in connection with the Borden case which was published in the Boston Globe, is now endeavoring to show to the Fall River authorities that he was working in their behalf and that his intent was to trick the Globe reporter.

McNeely says that the Globe reporter was playing a quart and that he was trying to find out just what the reporter was up to and for what he was working, intimating that the evidence in the case would be very easily examined to buy was to be communicated to the defense in the Borden case.

McNeely says: "My only object in leading the reporter off on a wild goose chase was to see if the earnings held by me and others was being used for anything else. My paper he represented might not be led into error. I explicitly cautioned him not to publish anything

STAY SENT DURING the Celebration at Chicago, Oct. 13.—While the Columbus celebration in La Rabida, Spain, was at its height yesterday Count Casa Miranda, delegate general of the Spanish world's fair commission, sent the following cablegram from La Rabida: "To the Hon. Walker Fearn, Chicago: "At this moment the King and Queen of Spain are in the city of La Rabida. In the presence of the diplomatic corps and the admirals commanding the foreign squadrons, an archbishop, assisted by two Franciscan monks, is now pronouncing the benediction, this solemn moment and on this memorable day I send cordial greeting to the directors of the exposition, reporting the success of the unprecedented progress since the discovery here new world by Columbus.

CASA MIRANDA.

THE POINT BREEZE SCANDAL.
Track Officials.
Philadelphia, Oct. 13.—The explosion of the Shanley of Binghamton, N. Y., owner of the gelding Grover S., together with the driver, Joseph Lyman, and Bel Hodier, an employee, by the Philadelphia Trotting Association, yesterday, bars them from all tracks of the National Trotting Association. Secretary Bell of the Philadelphia association said, this morning, that no criminal process would be instituted for the attempt to destroy the gelding. He said that the driver, Grover S., after being overhauled with laudanum, track officials had taken him to lysis, and say they will be prepared to pre-vide evidence that will prevent any efforts of the press to make the case a sensational one.

In the board of records of the national association meets next January.

THE TWO EMPERORS.
St. Helena, Oct. 13.—Francis Joseph to the Theater manager.
St. Helena, Oct. 13.—A grand banquet was given by the Schoenbrunn chateau last evening in of the German emperor. Ninety-two guests were laid.
In addition to Emperor William and Emperor Francis Joseph there were present all the Austrian archbishops and cabinet ministers.
The emperor, who was accompanied by his suits, attended the performance
at the Burg Theater, which was filled with brilliant audience.

MC EWAN WILL RECOVER.
Alleged Imitator of Jack the Ripper
Will Have to Stand Trial.
LABSOUGH, Oct. 13.—McEwan, the caretaker of murdering and dismembering a woman named Elizabeth O'Connor, with whom he was spending the night in his room at West gate, will recover from the effects of the poison he had inducted upon himself, and will be indicted upon two emperors.
The knife with which he
thrust was dull and he did not succeed in severing the jugular vein. McEwan and the woman he was using being in the company of McEwan and the woman in at the murder occurred, are still in custody.

A man's low pay. I am absolutely convinced that there are whole blocks and square miles of territory given to the government—ment-made clothing trade, have lived in Constantinople during the visitation of the Asiatic cholera and know the conditions of the cholera visited quarters
there, and I do solemnly aver that the conditions in New York city are worse. I saw sometimes in New York as poor, made in these wretched houses."

Telegraphers Gain Their Point.
ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 13.—Matters in the Missouri Pacific telegraphers' situation have been shaped themselves that an agreement is expected to be signed today. The schedule is said to increase the salaries in nearly every class on the line and to place the aggregate increase per annum in the neighborhood of $150,000.

Heavy Rain in South Dakota.
HROEN, S. D., Oct. 13.—Rain has been falling here since 9 o'clock yesterday morning with no indications of a let up. The prairie fires which have been raging in different parts of the Zim River valley since Sunday have been quenched
by the rain.

New Leader of Gilmore's Band.
ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 13.—At a meeting of the members of Gilmore's Band yesterday a committee was appointed to select a new leader. An offer has been made to Prof. D. W.
Reeves, director of the Providence, R. I., Cadet Band, and it is believed he will assume the leadership of the famous musical organization.

Rally of Baltimore Republicans.
 Dispatch to The Evening Post.
 BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 13.—Tonight (Thursday) the republicans held a big meeting at the Loosha building. The Young Men's Republican Club will escort Gen. D. H. Hastings and George Brennan to the place of meeting. Mr. Stephen B. Mason will be in charge of the procession. The Knights of Reciprocity, Baltimore council No. 3, will attend in uniform. The occasion is said to be one long to be remembered by the republicans of the city. The following will preside. A large number of vice presidents will be upon the platform. Several are congressional candidates are expected to be present. The campaign is at last beginning to warm up, if we may judge by the preparations for the coming election. The republican and democratic effort will be followed by the republican party in the same line. The republican party is trying to make up the redoubtable number of names to place their bet upon the official ballot.

Race for the Middle Park Plate.
 WINDSOR, Oct. 13.—The race for the Middle Park plate at the Newmarket second October meeting today was won by Mr. H. McCalmond's bay gelding, Ravensbury second, Baron Macdonald's Lancelot, third.

TORONTO, CAN., Oct. 13.—An application has been made to the state board of pardons for the pardon of Frank Kephlinger and George Smith, both of Virginia, U. S., who were convicted of burglary in Cherokee county and sentenced to five years' imprisonment. Kephlinger's father, a wealthy sheep raiser in Virginia and his uncle is president of the Illinois State College. Two years ago they were away from home, bringing up at Gaiden, Kan. Two weeks after their arrival they were brought for stealing one. On purely circumstantial evidence they were convicted. The man who bought the stolen one from them was charged with the crime. Both thieves and that the person guilty of the crime for which the boys were convicted is now in the penitentiary. In the meantime Kephlinger's father offered large rewards for news of his son, but no trace of his whereabouts was found until they were arrested. They were pardoned when they left home. They will be pardoned.

A Widespread Epidemic of Diphtheria.
 PLAIN CREEK, OHIO, Oct. 13.—Plain township, this county, is one of the most healthy. Every school in the township is closed and it is estimated that within a radius of four miles there are 300 cases of diphtheria. Scarcely a family here has escaped. All the children have been quarantined against the township and patrol guard all the roads. No business is being done and all school work is suspended.